Twelfth Annual Bargain Offer of Ohio State Journal, Making
Sweeping Reduction in Subscription Price.

Throughout the month of January, 1915, the Twelfth Annual Bargain Offer of the Ohio State Journal will be in effect.

Ohio newspaper readers who are supplied with mail by rural carriers and those who reside in small towns where the Ohio State Journal does not maintain an agency will have an opportunity to secure one year's subscription by mail for only Two Dollars.

It seems remarkable that as big and complete a newspaper as the Ohio State Journal can be offered at such a low price. Inasmuch as there has been an advance in every other line, it was hardly to be expected that the management of the Ohio State Journal would consider a reduction at this time.

However, the price is not only reduced during January, but the further announcement is made that in future the Monday issues will contain the same comic pages that appear in the Sunday Ohio State Journal.

This means the introduction of a feature that will be highly appreciated by both old and young. You will have a chance to get acquainted with the Katzenjammer family, Happy Hooligan, Jimmy and his papa, Cousin Willie and other celebrated comic characters. It will be a big treat and you will enjoy it.

From a news standpoint the Ohio State Journal has a big advantage over other publications. It is the only morning newspaper published in Columbus or central Ohio and is therefore in position to furnish its readers with a newspaper on the day it is published.

The Ohio State Journal owns the Associated Press morning franchise in the Columbus district and is also represented by a large staff of state correspondents, whose duty it is to supply the news from their respective sections. The Associated Press is conceded to be the greatest news-gathering association in the world and its service covers the entire globe.

The condition of the weather materially affects the business of the farmer and it is therefore necessary that he be supplied with a daily weather report. The Weather Map and Weather Observations appearing in the Ohio State Journal are issued 12 hours later than those furnished afternoon newspapers, dated for the next day, making the Ohio State Journal reports of real value to all who are engaged in agricultural pursuits.

Those interested in securing the actual close of the Grain, Live Stock and Produce Markets will appreciate the excellent market page provided by the Ohio State Journal.

Subscriptions may be sent to this office are mailed direct to the Ohio State Journal, Columbus, O. Remember that commencing Feb. 1 the regular rate will be restored.

If you will subscribe to The NEWS-HERALD or renew your subscription, we will include three standard magazines, all one year, for only 25c extra. WRITE OR PHONE. adv
